KANSAS PROFESSOR TO DISCUSS
PLANETS TUESDAY AT UNIVERSITY

MISSOULA--

Dr. Edward J. Zeller, a professor of geology and physics at the University of Kansas, Lawrence, will discuss the geological characteristics of the Earth, Moon, Mars, Venus and Mercury Tuesday (March 7) at the University of Montana.

Tuesday's lecture, which is open to the public without charge, will begin at 3 p.m. in room 221 of the UM Science Complex.

Lunar rock analyses and seismic measurements from the Apollo program, photographs from Mariner spacecraft and radar imagery studies provide the basis for the presentation.

Dr. Zeller's visit is sponsored by the American Association of Petroleum Geologists. He is a distinguished lecturer for the organization.
